Sophia University ICC presents a special preview screening of

旅 Tabi/Another Time

The film is in Japanese with English subtitles. (Film duration: 85 minutes)

A young woman travels to a remote village on Sado Island in Japan to photograph the local puppets, but when she arrives there, she learns that the puppets do not perform anymore and the village is abandoned and haunted by ghosts, one of which may be herself in a previous tragic life.

December 14, 2024, Saturday
Screening from 18.00 in Library, Room 911
(Doors open at 17.30)
Followed by a Q and A with the Puppets and a Live Tanuki.

Best Fantasy Film Award at the Galactic Imaginarium Film Festival in Rumania, 2024

Screening in Competition at the Girona International Film Festival, Spain, 2024

Special Invitation Screening at the Sado Galaxy Arts Festival, 2024

This film was funded by a Sophia University Priority Areas Research Grant (2020-2022) and shot entirely in the village of Kitaushima on Sado Island.

This event is organized by John Williams (Professor, Faculty of Foreign Studies) and the ICC Collaborative Research Unit "Exploring a Japanese Fishing Village Through Art".
